Pay Your Subscription.

Last week The Herald was compelled to discontinue sending the paper to a number of subscribers because they had failed to pay their subscriptions. They are all good folks and have the best of intentions, but good intentions will not run a newspaper long. It takes real coin, shoo-nuff money, to run a newspaper, especially now, when everything that goes to make a newspaper is so high. We regret to have to insist upon it, but our subscribers will have to pay up promptly if they want The Herald to continue. Every paper that is sent out now costs money, and we cannot afford to send it to anyone who does not intend to renew, and we have no means of knowing when one of our subscribers has a change of mind about renewing. If you do not wish to have The Herald continue coming to you, don't be bashful about telling us, for we certainly have no money to spend on sending papers to those who do not intend to pay.

NEGRO KILLED SATURDAY.

Wesley Mitchell Slain by J. J. Hughes Near Bamberg.

Wesley Mitchell, a negro, was shot and killed Saturday night, the pistol being in the hands of Mr. J. J. Hughes, according to the verdict of the coroner's jury. The killing occurred near the house occupied by Mitchell on Mr. Hughes's plantation a few miles from Bamberg.

Sunday morning Coroner Zeigler held an inquest over the body of Mitchell. The autopsy was performed by Dr. Black. Sheriff Ray accompanied the party to the inquest. Mr. Hughes was placed under arrest by Sheriff Ray Sunday morning and brought to Bamberg.

According to the witnesses at the inquest, Mr. Hughes had been in Bamberg Saturday and was returning home Saturday night in a wagon, with some of his hands. When he arrived at the house occupied by Mitchell, according to witnesses, he called to Mitchell, who came out of the house and up to Mr. Hughes's wagon. A pistol shot was then fired, and Mitchell fell to the ground. After the shooting of Mitchell, Mr. Hughes is said to have proceeded to his own home, firing his pistol several times after he left the negro's house. It is said that Mr. Hughes was under the influence of whiskey.

The negro, it is stated, had been a tenant on Mr. Hughes's plantation for several years, and so far as known there had been no ill feeling between Mr. Hughes and his tenant.

One shot was fired into Mitchell's body, taking effect in the ribs. After hearing the testimony, the jury rendered a verdict that Mitchell came to his death from a pistol shot wound at the hands of J. J. Hughes.

The General Election.

On another page of The Herald today will be found the notices of the general election to be held on November 7th. The federal commissioners of election for this county met last week and appointed the managers for the various precincts of the county and made such other arrangements as necessary for the holding of the election. The commissioners of State and county elections met Monday and made their appointments. These advertisements should be read carefully by all voters in order that they may be in position to vote intelligently on all the constitutional amendments and for the various nominees of the party.

The polls will be opened at seven o'clock in the morning and closed at four o'clock in the afternoon. The lists of managers of both federal and State and county elections will be found in the election notices.

It is the duty of every voter to go to the polls and vote. The production of a registration certificate is required, and also proof of the payment of all assessed taxes. As yet it is not known whether or not there will be a "bolt," but the "Scimitar," a prominent Bleas paper, has stated that it will print ballots with Bleas's name for governor, to be distributed; therefore it is to the interest of every Democrat to go to the polls and vote for the Democratic nominees. There are, it is understood, both Republican and Progressive tickets out.

Funeral of Mr. G. P. Harmon.

The remains of Probate Judge Geo. P. Harmon were brought to Bamberg Wednesday night of last week, and interment took place at Southend cemetery Thursday morning at ten o'clock in the presence of a large concourse of relatives and friends. Mr. Harmon died at the University hospital in Augusta on Tuesday preceding his funeral. Rev. E. O. Watson, D. D., conducted the funeral services at the grave.

The following gentlemen acted as honorary pallbearers: Messrs. C. R. Brabham, Sr., V. J. Hartzog, W. D. Rhoad, A. S. Easterling, J. T. O'Neal, and J. A. Williams. The active pallbearers were: Messrs. M. J. Black, A. M. Brabham, J. J. Smoak, F. M. Moye, B. T. Felder, and A. B. Utsey. Many beautiful flowers were placed upon the grave.

Byrnes in West Virginia.

Congressman James F. Byrnes has gone to West Virginia, where he has been assigned to speak in the interest of the Democratic party. His time will be taken up until the election, and he will make speeches daily. Most of his time will be devoted to West Virginia, which is looked upon as one of the doubtful States, and the Republicans are making a great effort to place it to the credit of Hughes. Mr. Byrnes will be sent into Maryland, and will also make a few speeches in Delaware and Pennsylvania.

Mr. Byrnes is a most interesting speaker, and with his knowledge of the national questions of the day will no doubt be of great service to the Democratic party in its fight for the reelection of Woodrow Wilson.

Automobile Advertising.

The Bamberg Herald is now carrying more automobile advertising than any other weekly paper in this section, and probably more than any weekly in the State. This is quite a compliment to the advertising value of The Herald. This advertising is usually carried through advertising agencies, who know good newspaper advertising when they see it. When they have an appropriation for advertising a certain car, they set about making up a list of the best newspapers to run their advertising in—a list to get the best value for the money from.

This newspaper today carries advertising for the Maxwell, Overland, Paige, Reo, and Elcar cars. The Maxwell advertising is sent out by the Van Cleave Company, the Overland by the Martin V. Kelley company, the Paige by the Alexander, Power & Jenkins company, the Reo advertising is handled directly by the local dealer, J. W. Barr, and the Elcar advertising is handled directly from the dealer, James E. Searson, of Allendale.

Local patrons are realizing the value of The Herald as an advertising medium as well as the advertising agencies, as our readers may readily see by looking over the large number of local concerns advertising with us each week. And they are all good ads, too. Our readers will be missing one of the best features of the paper if they fail to read the advertisements.

Planning for Addition.

A building committee was appointed by the Baptist church some time ago for the purpose of considering plans and the cost of an addition to the church building. This addition is needed for the use of the Sunday school, which has grown to such large proportions that there are not nearly enough rooms for the various classes. This building committee has already secured plans from several architects, but on account of the peculiar location of the church building on the lot, it has been difficult to present any practical plans for a suitable addition that would house the necessary Sunday-school rooms and at the same time not mar the appearance of the church property. A Charleston architect has recently submitted a plan for an addition, the cost of building which would be something like five thousand dollars. The committee now has this plan under consideration, and will make a report on it soon.

Some of the membership of the church are in favor of converting the parsonage into Sunday-school rooms and either building or purchasing a parsonage elsewhere. It is argued that before many years longer Bamberg will be in need of a new Baptist edifice, and that the temporary needs of the Sunday-school can be met by using the present parsonage for additional rooms. A conference of the church was held Sunday after the morning service, but further time was allowed the building committee to give consideration to the matter before making a report.

Carlisle Loses to Savannah.

Carlisle lost the second game of the season last Saturday when Savannah high beat the boys from Bamberg by a score of 31 to 19. The game was played in Savannah in ideal weather, and was a very good exhibition of prep school football.

It was an exciting contest from the beginning and the interest of the many spectators never waned in the least until toward the close of the game when the Savannah lads were leading by a close score.

At one time in the third quarter Carlisle was in the lead by one point when the score was 19 to 18. In the first quarter when the score was 12 to 0, LeNoir ran 70 yards for the first touchdown.

Kelley, Spicer and Hohenstein were the stars for Savannah.

"Crip" LeNoir made two of the three touchdowns for Carlisle, and was by far the best player on the field. Hough came in for the other touchdown, and played splendid ball throughout. Luther and Kearse played well for Carlisle also.

The line-up follows:

High School 31.	Carlisle 19.
Hohenstein .. LE	Luther
Rose .. LT	Emanuel
Borum .. LG	Carroll
Davis .. C	Bryant
Morrison .. RG	Smith, G.
Winburn .. RT	Moore, A.
Waters .. RE	McCants
McDonough .. QB	LeNoir
Kelley .. LH	Sistrunk
Bryson .. RH	Kearse
Spicer .. FB	Hough

Score by periods:

High School	12	6	7	6	31
Carlisle	6	6	7	0	19

Scoring: High School, Kelley, 2; Spicer, 3; goal from touchdown, Waters. Carlisle, LeNoir, 2; Hough, 1; goal from touchdown, LeNoir.

The game scheduled with Richmond Academy for next Friday has been called off, on account of the managers being unable to decide where to play. The next game is with Carolina freshmen, November 1st.

Insured Parcel Post Packages.

The postmaster requests it stated that hereafter the patrons of the postoffice who wish to mail insured parcel post packages must fill out the insured tag and attach same to the package. This is a requirement of the postoffice laws that has not been adhered to in the past. The postoffice force is glad to accommodate the people by filling out and attaching tags, but the work of the office has become so heavy that it is not possible to continue to do so. It is important, too, that these tags should be filled out by the sender, as this prevents errors in addresses that might occur if some one else does it. Patrons should remember hereafter, when they desire to forward insured packages, to call for the insured tags, fill out same carefully, and attach to the packages securely. This will prevent confusion, and make long explanations unnecessary.

The Wilson Fund.

The Herald regrets that it cannot acknowledge any receipts this week for the Wilson campaign fund. Bamberg is yet far behind what it should be in this matter, and we hope yet to receive a good many contributions to the fund. The time is now very short, and all those who contemplate sending in any funds should do so at once.

"Lilac Domino," October 27th.

Andreas Dippel, Grand Opera Impersonator and former Co-director of the Metropolitan and General Manager of the Chicago and Boston Grand Opera Companies, will present his spectacular, high-class opera, "The Lilac Domino," at the Academy of Music, Orangeburg, October 27th. "The Lilac Domino" organization was formed by Mr. Dippel for the adequate presentation in this country of genuine light opera and immediately met with the most hearty approval of the music lovers and grand opera patrons of both New York and Boston, in which cities the opera was given for over one year. The remarkable case of opera artists, special orchestra, splendid chorus of singing and dancing girls of rare charm and beauty, the gorgeous scenic embellishments and fashionable gowns that helped so materially in its initial success will be used during its engagement at the Academy of Music, Orangeburg, October 27th.

This is not only a musical, but a genuine operatic and social event and should be looked forward to with eager pleasure by local music lovers, more especially as in this event we are to have the organization intact as it appeared last season.

Mr. Dippel, unlike other managers, does not believe in substitutes and notwithstanding the remarkable success of "The Lilac Domino" insists that only one company shall present it under his management.

Hunter, Dr. Ed. Kirkland, and J. J. O'Neal.

Mr. M. W. Brabham.

For two weeks the field secretary and Mr. M. W. Brabham, field secretary of the North Carolina conference, have been engaged in a series of Sunday-school institutes. * * *

Brabham is a South Carolina boy. For more than three years he was the alert, progressive, efficient superintendent of our Trinity Sunday-school at Bamberg, where he lived and was successfully engaged in banking. Five years ago he felt called to give his entire time to Christian work and since then has devoted his splendid ability and untiring energy to the Sunday-school field secretaryship of the North Carolina conference. During that time he has worked wisely and well, the best testimony of which is the wonderful development of the Sunday-schools of that conference. Large fields have been offered him, but with the workman's true zeal he declined all in order to carry to completion the plans he had outlined in his own field. He has a bright future before him. His coming to South Carolina was a real blessing, and wherever he went he made friends who will gladly welcome him back to South Carolina whenever he can come.—Southern Christian Advocate.
